If you want to be in the Honors Program...

You take your education seriously and are willing to focus and work harder to learn more. The Program is marked by mutual respect among faculty and students. This means coming to class on time and contributing to the class as a whole rather than holding independent conversations.

Date of High School Graduation

Cumulative CR GPA

If you did not or have not graduated high school, please address this in a brief attached letter. Please use high school GPA if you're a high school applicant.

Applicants are required to send the following to the Honors Program Director. Incomplete and late applications will not be considered.

1. College of the Redwoods Transcript

If you do not have a CR transcript, please provide your latest high school or other college transcripts and/or a letter explaining the reason they are unavailable. If this is your first semester at CR, please estimate grades in your current classes and have the instructors sign them.

2. Ask TWO INSTRUCTORS to fill out the enclosed

Faculty Reference Forms. Reference forms should be sent by the instructor directly to Dr. George Potamianos. High school applicants and transfer students should provide their teachers with stamped envelopes addressed to Dr. Potamianos (see side bar) to ensure that reference forms are sent directly to the Honors Program. Please list the names of the two instructors who have agreed to recommend you below:

3. High School applicants should send a copy of SAT and/or ACT scores, if available.

4. To demonstrate your college level writing skills, enclose a typed essay of approximately 500 words in response to the prompt below.

Your completed application must be postmarked no later than October 27, 2009 for your application to be considered for Spring 2010 or March 30, 2010 for Fall 2010.

Essay Prompt

Please respond to the following in an essay that demonstrates the college-level writing abilities you will need to be successful in Honors classes. (Minimum 500 words, double-spaced)

Write an argumentative essay on one of the following topics. Circle the number of the prompt you are addressing.

1. Why do you want to become a member of the College of the Redwoods' Honors Program? Make a clear argument explaining your reasons for applying to the Honors Program at the college.
2. Explore an idea that you encountered in a book that you read outside of your regular coursework that excited you intellectually. Explain why the idea interested you and how that idea stimulated your intellectual curiosity.
