Ethics Statement regarding Student use of Instructional Media/Software

As a student enrolled in a College of the Redwoods Health Occupations Program (RN, LVN, MA, DA, NA) I will have the opportunity to use instructional media materials including, but not limited to: videos, audiocassettes, and computer assisted instructional (CAI) programs and other computer software.

I understand that these materials are the property of College of the Redwoods and may be used ONLY in designated locations within the College: including the HO Skills Lab, HO Computer Lab and in the LAC – Learning Assistance Center. NO INSTRUCTIONAL MEDIA MATERIAL MAY BE REMOVED FROM DESIGNATED AREAS OR THE COLLEGE PREMISES AT ANY TIME, and I agree to abide by these regulations.

I understand that these materials are copyrighted and licensed to the school for student use under the condition that NO reproductions (copies) of these materials will be made for student or personal use, and I agree to abide by these regulations.

I agree to use instructional media materials only after I have learned and correctly demonstrated the operation of the equipment necessary to use the aforementioned Instructional Media/Software, including, but not limited to VCR, TV, computers, and audiocassettes. I agree to operate all equipment correctly and to seek immediate assistance from faculty, Skills lab personnel or their designees if any problems or malfunctions occur.

I recognize that that these instructional materials are expensive and difficult, if not impossible to replace. I agree to use these materials with care; to promptly report any missing, malfunctioning, or defective instructional materials or equipment to faculty, Skills lab personnel or their designees.

I recognize that all instructional media is intended for use by all students enrolled in College of the Redwoods Health Occupations programs and I agree to share the use of these materials in an equitable fashion. Additionally, I agree to abide by the rules governing the use of computers and other instructional media as set forth in the College of the Redwoods Board Policies (<http://www.redwoods.edu/District/Board/Policies/ar/AR82401.Htm>)

I have read and signed this Ethics Statement on the date indicated below. I understand that a copy of this signed statement will be placed in my student record in the Health Occupations Office. I understand that failure to comply with the provisions of this Ethics Statement will lead to a review of my behavior and possible disciplinary action.
