

Student Employee IIIWage A: $8.75Wage B: $9.00Summary:

Assists in a variety of functions in support of an instructional lab or department, usually following well established policies, procedures, and methods.

Distinguishing Characteristics:

Student Worker III performs a variety of functions in support of an instructional lab or department with public contact. This position requires good knowledge of the terminology, practices, procedures, and equipment of the instructional department of assignment.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Examples of duties and responsibilities are assisting in the set up of instructional labs (examples computing, biology, chemistry, nursing, automotive, etc.) May assist students with instructional assignments in labs or tutoring. Assists in the cleaning and maintenance of lab materials and equipment.

Knowledge and Skills:

The position requires extensive skills in the use of typical equipment, tools, materials, and subject matter of the instructional discipline or department.

Abilities:

Requires the ability to understand and carry out oral and written instructions and complete assignments. Requires the ability to use good judgment to fulfill tasks. Requires the ability to safely operate equipment, tools, and materials associated with the position.

Education and Experience:

Enrollment in College of the Redwoods is required. Eligibility for Federal Work Study is desirable. Knowledge and experience in the field is highly desirable.