

The College of the Redwoods women's basketball program will be offering a summer basketball camp for girls K-8th grades and boys K-5th grades. Camp will be held Monday through Friday, July 28th through August 1st.

Camp is offered from 8:30 a.m. -12:30 p.m. and 1:00-5:00 p.m. each day. Campers can sign up for the morning session, afternoon session, or full day session. Early drop-off starting at 8:00 a.m. for full day or morning session attendees or 12:00 p.m. for afternoon session attendees is available at no additional charge. In addition, late pick-up up to 5:30 p.m. is also offered at no additional charge.

Campers will be divided into age and skill appropriate groups to make for the best camp experience.

The women's basketball program has recently purchased two lowered portable hoops for the younger campers.

Fundamentals will be taught in a fun and educational way so that both beginning and intermediate campers have a great opportunity to learn and improve.

Campers have an option of purchasing their lunch at the campus cafeteria or bringing a lunch.

All campers will receive a camp t-shirt and camp picture on the last day of camp.

Camp Director & Staff

The camp is directed by Kara Newman, College of the Redwoods Head Women's Basketball Coach. Coach Newman brings twelve years of basketball camp experience, including six years of directing camps at both Humboldt State University and College of the Redwoods. In addition to her coaching experience, Coach Newman also has three years of elementary school teaching experience, and a Masters degree in Kinesiology with an emphasis in teaching and coaching. Her camps have a reputation for being high energy, fun and confidence builders for young basketball players! The coaching staff will consist of current and former college basketball coaches and players.

"Coaching our youth is a very positive way of giving back to the great game of basketball. Camps encourage physical fitness, positive, healthy lifestyles and development of social skills in young people."
