Dear Prospective Resident:

We are glad that you have chosen to live and pursue your studies while living in the College of the Redwoods Residence Halls. The Residence Halls are a living and learning environment; and as such, it is our hope that you will increase in your academic ability, learn more about yourself, grow in your experiences with others and have a better understanding of your local and global community. What you need to know

Priority registration allows you to register early so you can get into courses before they fill up. To be eligible, you must participate in orientation, complete the assessment process for math and English course placement, and develop an Education Plan with your counselor or advisor. This process will help you to clearly define your goals, stay on track, and take the most direct route from start to finish.

1 Orientation: Connect with your campus

Orientation allows you to learn about financial aid, registration, tutoring services, important locations on campus, types of degrees, and more, helping you adjust to your new college.

2 Assessment: Discover your academic skills

College assessment tests measure your academic knowledge and skills and take the guesswork out of choosing courses at the right level. You might find out that you are ready for higher-level courses in some areas, or need more preparation in other areas. Your assessment results help you know where to begin in your college career.

3 Education Plan: Make the most of your college experience

Your Education Plan, created with the help of a counselor or advisor, is a step-by-step guide based on requirements to meet your goals and how soon you would like to complete them. Planning ahead will ensure you take your courses in the right sequence to enroll in the courses you need, when you need them.

For more information, please visit <http://stepforward.cccco.edu/> or contact College of the Redwoods Counseling and Advising Center at (707)476-4150.

Summer 2019/ Fall 2019/ Spring 2020

Dear Resident,

This letter is to remind you that College of the Redwoods is a drug and alcohol free institution, as well as a smoke free institution. Electronic smoking devices are treated the same as traditional cigarettes. We wanted to remind you that these policies are taken seriously and we are now moving forward to a zero tolerance policy on drugs, alcohol, and smoking. Should any of these policies be violated you may receive a major violation at the Residence Halls which would lead to your removal from the halls. Each incident will also be forwarded to the Vice President of Student Services and Learning Support or his/her designee for disciplinary action.

Our hope is that this reminder heads off any incidents that might occur and create hardship for any individual. Please sign and date and return this letter to the Housing Office letting us know you have received this notice.

We thank you for your cooperation and continue to wish you success in all your goals.

Sincerely,

Jordan Hamill
Director of Residential Life
