

English Course Sequence

Which classes do you need to achieve your goals?

Course availability varies by campus location.

If you have any questions about course availability, please contact the location you plan to attend:

- Eureka or Distance Education: 707-476-4150
counseling@redwoods.edu
- Del Norte: 707-465-2300
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821

COLLEGE OF THE
REDWOODS

We've got your 'back'!

Do you need additional support in any of these courses? Turn to the back of this document for a list of English Support Courses.

English Support Courses

Developing Literacy 0 Units

READ-260***

A course designed to develop basic reading and writing skills

**This course can be taken alone or as a support course.*

Intermediate English as a Second Language (ESL) 0 Units

ESL-211

Comprehension of everyday spoken English, reading and writing for ESL students.

English Labs 0.5-1 Units

Individualized instruction to help students improve reading, writing, and critical thinking skills.

ENGL-53A: A lab for students enrolled in ENGL-1A

ENGL-53B: A lab for students enrolled in ENGL-1B

ENGL-54: A lab for students enrolled in any Humanities course

ENGL-55: A lab for students enrolled in any Social Science course

P/NP Only

The LIGHT Center 1-4 Units

GUID-145 Applied Study Skills & Strategies

Development and application of adaptive study strategies.

GUID-146 Applied Study Skills and Strategies For English and Humanities

Development and application of adaptive study strategies for English and the humanities.

Course availability varies by campus location.

If you have any questions about course availability, please contact the location you plan to attend:

- Eureka or Distance Education: 707-476-4150
counseling@redwoods.edu
- Del Norte: 707-465-2300
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821

COLLEGE OF THE
REDWOODS

Turn to the front of this document to see the English Course Sequence and find out what classes you need!