CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES TO YOUR HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION:

As per Public Law 112-74 amended HEA Section 484(d) effective July 1, 2012, all students must now have a high school diploma or the recognized equivalent in order to receive financial aid. Students who were approved under the previous Ability to Benefit (ATB) provisions will remain eligible if they meet all other criteria. All other students must meet one of the following criteria listed below to be considered for financial eligibility.

I received a high school diploma from _____
Name of High School

on _____, located in _____
Month/Year City, State

I received my GED/Certificate of Proficiency on _____ Month/Year

I completed home schooling on _____, located in _____
Month/Year City, State

I do not have a high school diploma, GED, or home school credential. I understand I am not eligible for any federal financial aid and my file will not be processed. You may be eligible for state aid, including programs like the California College Promise Program (formerly known as the Board of Governors Fee Waiver, BOG) and Extended Opportunity Program and Support (EOPS).

- o If you have selected this option, you do NOT need to submit this form.

I certify that all of the information provided on this form is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.
