Student Complaints Contact Information for Individual States

Please note that although this table lists contact information for all fifty states, at this time only students in states listed on the CR-Online “Out of State Students” page may register for online classes with College of the Redwoods. This is due to restrictions placed by the state of residence on our ability to offer instruction to students residing in that state. (Students from any state who are taking face-to-face classes from College of the Redwoods may enroll concurrently in online courses.)
