Successful Veterans in College, Certificate of Competency

A noncredit Certificate of Competency preparing veterans to successfully transition to college life. This sequence of courses enables students to honor their life experiences and convert their military training into lifelong success skills. It will give students the opportunity to explore possible careers based on personal, military and vocational skills, discover veteran-specific support services available on and off campus, and develop necessary skills to nurture personal and professional development. This certificate provides an entry point for veterans to begin their education and increase their employment options.
