FREE Math Review Class to prep for the TEAS TEST

Math 207 is offered in Fall, Spring, and Summer Sessions!

Pre-Nursing students going into the nursing program (RN or Career Mobility) at College of the Redwoods are required to take a Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) before applying to the program.

A math review course is typically offered each semester to help with reviewing math concepts that will specifically be seen on the TEAS test.
