Catalog Description

An examination of historical and legal parameters that support a broad array of evidence-based substance abuse prevention and treatment programs, with an emphasis on the legal, cultural and ethical standards that guide multi-disciplinary teams and cross-agency interactions.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Describe the cultural and historical contexts of addiction, including the relationships between economics, politics, substance abuse and treatment.
2. Analyze risk and resiliency factors that characterize individual and group patterns of substance abuse.
3. Identify and explain the continuum of care and resources available to clients and their families.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Semester grades will be based on the percentage of the total possible points earned over the semester. Letter grades will be broken down as follows:

90-100% = A

80-89% = B

70-79% = C

60-69% = D

Below 60% = F

Student Feedback Policy

Feedback will be given on all student's assignments. Each assignment will be graded based on a rubric that will be posted with the assignment.

Canvas Information

Canvas will be utilized as the platform for our class. Our Canvas class page will be where you can find the syllabus, assignments, articles, grades, announcements, and is also a great way to message myself or your classmates. Grades will be logged into Canvas throughout the semester so that you are able to keep track of your progress.

Attendance and Participation

Attendance is determined by your participation in the online modules each week. You must regularly be completing weekly assignments. If you fall behind on completing the weekly modules, this will be considered to be not attending class and may result in you being dropped from the course. I will reach out to you if you are not attending class, however, please reach out to me as well if any issues are arising that are getting in the way of you completing the material each week. Participation is also determined by you completing the weekly assignments, and when you comment on other classmates' discussion posts, this will help your participation grade. You need not comment every week, but you should be making two-three comments every few weeks to be considered as actively participating in the class.

Late Policy

Please keep yourself apprised of the due dates for your assignments. Be sure to allot enough time to complete each assignment, while keeping in mind the fact that computers and printers tend to malfunction, people tend to get sick, and life tends to get messy (i.e. plan ahead for the unexpected/don't wait until the last minute ;). That being said, if any issues arise that interfere with you completing an assignment when it is due, please communicate with me as soon as you can so that we can figure out the best way to move forward. Points will be deducted for late submissions (please refer to the corresponding rubric for an assignment).

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. It does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

Community College Student Health and Wellness

Resources, tools, and trainings regarding health, mental health, wellness, basic needs and more designed for California community college students, faculty and staff are available on the California Community Colleges Health & Wellness website.

Wellness Central is a free online health and wellness resource that is available 24/7 in your space at your pace.
