Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

College of the Redwoods

ADCT 17 & 42: Field Studies II Course Syllabus

CLASS FORMAT: At the beginning of each class, students will have the opportunity to raise questions about the course readings and assignments. Though, the focus of each class will be to apply theoretical concepts from class lectures, required readings, and discussions to the students' field experiences. The instructor will assist by facilitating class discussions through the utilization of case vignettes and shared field experiences to help promote an optimal learning environment.

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION: It is believed that positive attendance and active classroom participation are an integral part of learning. Therefore, students are encouraged to attend each Zoom class and actively participate.

FIELD PLACEMENT: The student will be responsible for locating and securing a field placement at an agency that focuses on recovery from addictions, which has been approved by the instructor prior to beginning the placement. In addition, each student will need to identify a field site supervisor to complete the following with the student: field placement contract, orientation, development of a learning agreement, certification of all field hours, and student evaluation toward the learning objectives.

Note: Students will be required to complete 150 field placement hours by the end of the semester (equivalent to about 7 volunteer or paid employment hours per week).

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: Late Assignments will be accepted. However, 5 points will automatically be deducted from the total points earned for every class session in which the assignment has not been turned in.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Chapter Essay Assignments: Students will be required to complete and submit assignments as given by the instructor throughout the semester. Also, there are 11 chapters in the textbook and there will be an essay question for each chapter posted on canvas. Each essay needs to be at least 2 pages and worth 25 points each. 275 points
2. Agency Orientation Checklist: The Student Orientation Checklist is a required document that will provide a framework for monitoring and completing the agency orientation process (See handout). 25 points

3. Student Learning Agreement: The student learning agreement provides students with the opportunity to participate in the planning of his/her field experience. Each student is responsible for the actual writing of her/his learning agreement, but is encouraged to collaborate with their field supervisor in developing the agreement (See handout). 50 points
4. Midterm Self-Assessment: This assignment is intended to be a reflection of your learning accomplishments from the beginning to the middle of the semester (See handout). 100 points
5. Certification of Field Placement Hours: Student will be required to monitor, record, and have all field placement hours certified by the student's field site supervisor (See handout). To receive credit for this course, student must complete a minimum of 150 hours at an agency which has been approved by the instructor of this course. 150 points
6. Final Reflection Paper: A comprehensive reflection of your learning and development while in the field over the course of the semester (See handout). 50 points

Placement Evaluation: At the completion of the field placement hours, the student will be required to complete and submit a performance evaluation on the field site supervisor/placement. By completing this assignment, students will be given the opportunity to reflect on their experiences at the field site and on the quality of the supervision provided (See handout). 50 points.

7. Student Evaluation: At the completion of the field placement hours, the student will be required to submit a performance evaluation that has been completed by the student's field supervisor. This process allows the student and instructor to get feedback about the student's strengths, areas for improvement, and recommendations for improvement (See handout). 100 points.

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT: It should be noted that due to the sensitive nature of the course content, all information discussed in class should be considered confidential and should not be shared outside the classroom environment. An essential component of the field experience class is providing a safe and supportive environment where students feel comfortable examining their values, beliefs, and experiences over the course of the semester. In order for the class to be a safe and supportive environment for exploration of thoughts and opinions, it is critical to allow others the opportunity to express themselves while protecting the identity of the client(s) at all times and minimizing personal reflection.
