Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

AI Use Class Policy

Recent advancements in generative artificial intelligence (AI) have made large language models such as ChatGPT and Google's Bard widely available. However, overuse of these tools in this class can undermine your learning and curtail the development of your critical and creative thinking skills. In addition, AI outputs are often unreliable and frequently subject to bias. For these reasons, the policy of this class is that AI cannot be used at any point in the completion of class assignments, including discussion posts. Any or all of your assignment submissions and discussion posts may be screened by AI detection software, but the real penalty for AI misuse is that you will miss out on an opportunity to learn.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Assignments

- Research Assignment – Choose a drug or other type of addiction that affects a person in a way that interests you, and that you are interested in knowing more about. Choose wisely as you will use this topic for your Final Term paper. Each student will locate two articles or books that details pharmacology, physiology and / or recovery from the drug or other addiction. You will then write a summary of the articles. Each summary should be no more than two pages.
- Field Assignment – Each student will attend two online recovery group meetings (i.e.: Alcoholic Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, Al-Anon, Ala-Teen, Sex and Love Addicts Anonymous, Gambling, Marijuana Anonymous, etc.) that deal with the recovery from the above drug or other addiction. Write a two-page summary of your experiences.
- You will use the findings from the above when writing your final Term Paper.

Final Term Paper

Continue with your choice from above and follow it from introduction, effects, recovery and long-term prognosis. You will also include your findings from your two other assignments. The paper must include pharmacology of the drug, plus all the changing physiology as it relates to the action of the drug, its withdrawal, and recovery upon the body. 8 pages.
