Catalog Description

A study of current issues facing the criminal justice system. Such issues include police use of force, capital punishment, mandatory sentencing laws, militarization of policing, crime prevention strategies, and juvenile delinquency and gang crime. Analysis of these issues will also consider whether and if so, the extent to which the criminal justice system improperly discriminates against diverse multicultural groups in our society.

Course Student Learning Outcomes *(from course outline of record)

- Articulate a number of emerging issues (including crime-fighting strategies) facing the criminal justice system today.
- Identify the diverse cultural, racial, and ethnic populations of the United States and recognize their perceptions as to the fairness of the criminal justice system.
- Articulate the arguments as to the effectiveness of various crime-fighting strategies adopted by the criminal justice system.
- Identify the limitations society imposes upon how the criminal justice system operates as to issues covered in this course.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

It is recommended that students have taken AJ-1 before enrolling in this course, it is not a requirement, but strongly suggested.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

Current Issues in Administration of Justice

Spring 2023

Course Syllabus

Assignments:

You will complete an issue essay for each chapter/issue discussed in class. You will be given detailed instructions for their completion and electronic submission to the Canvas website for grading via Turnitin.com. I will grade them on the Turnitin site, where you can view grades and my comments. If these assignments are turned in late, I will assess a late grade penalty of my choosing. Employment issues, childcare, and computer issues are not excuses for late submission of any late work.

The issue briefs will require some research outside of class. The proper use of standard English, which includes grammar, spelling, and proper punctuation are all part of the grade for each writing assignment as well as depth and accuracy of your responses.

Attendance:

Attendance is required for this course; it is a discussion-based course and much of the course information will not come from the textbook alone. Classroom discussions and small group work are an important part of your grade.

Four absences will result in a drop from the course by the instructor.

Required Textbook:

Current Legal Issues in Criminal Justice 2nd Edition

Craig Hemmens

Course Grade:

Issue Briefs	60%
Weekly Discussion Questions	25%
Attendance	15%

A failing grade on two or more of the issue briefs may result in a failing (F) grade for the entire course.

Assigned Readings:

Every week (some topics may take two weeks), there will be assigned readings and occasionally videos posted on Canvas, although this is not an online course Canvas will be utilized in a comparable manner.

Plagiarism is defined as claiming any work of another person as your own without attribution to the original author. It also includes taking a substantial portion (30% or more) of your assignment from another source, whether or not credit is given to the original author. This would include work from another student even with their permission. If plagiarism is discovered, the instructor may impose a failing grade for the assignment or a failing grade for the entire course.

This is a discussion course, and students will be required to respect each other and the instructor during all discussions. I expect that you may disagree with the views of your classmates from time to time, these disagreements will be expressed in a respectful manner. We all bring a broad array of life experiences to the class and these experiences lead to valuable discussions and learning opportunities.
