Catalog Description

This survey of visual art from the Prehistory to the Gothic places emphasis on Western art. Topics explored include an artwork's cultural and historical context, particular periods and styles.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Identify a broad range of processes and materials used to create works of art in the West from prehistory through the medieval period.
2. Analyze visual or formal structure in works of two-dimensional and three-dimensional art and architecture.
3. Identify subject matter and iconography in both western and non-western works of art from the prehistory through the medieval period.
4. Analyze, discuss and differentiate works of art within their cultural context.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

Prerequisites: None (English 150 recommended)

Recommended Preparation: Have completed ENGL 150; ready to take (or concurrently taking) ENGL 1A

Accessibility

Students will have access to online course materials that comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and College of the Redwoods policies. Students who discover access issues with this class should contact the instructor.

College of the Redwoods is also committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor

During COVID19, approved accommodations for distance education classes will be emailed to the instructor by DSPS. In the case of face to face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments cannot usually be accommodated.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Assignments in this class include: three exams; quizzes; weekly posts on the class discussion forum; attendance at lectures.

- This course meets in-person twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:05 am - 11:30 am. Class meetings will be held in the Humanities Building, room HU207.
- Each week, homework will involve responding to a question posted on the class discussion forum.
- Regular quizzes on Canvas will require you to keep up with course material.
- Three exams will be taken on Canvas.

Final Grade Rubric (sample):

Exams (3) —300 points

Discussion forum posts (15) —150 points

Quizzes (5) — 50 points

Attendance (15 weeks, 10 points per week) — 150 points

Canvas

You will use the course management system Canvas to participate in weekly discussions, review course assignments and powerpoint presentations, and read announcements. You will need to log in regularly (before and after each class) to keep up at <https://instructure.redwoods.edu>

Nonparticipation policy

If you have failed to log in to Canvas and/or failed to submit a response for 50 percent or more of weekly assignments by the class's census date (09/06/22), or by its drop date, you will be automatically dropped from the class for nonparticipation.

Late assignments policy:

Assignments will be submitted on Canvas. Assignments that are submitted late will have 10% of total points deducted for every week they are overdue. Assignment submitted less than or equal to 1 week overdue = 10 points detracted; submitted less than or equal to 2 weeks overdue = 20 points detracted, and so on. Assignments submitted 5 or more weeks' late will still be accepted for a flat score of 50%.

Exams

The three exams in this class will be taken on Canvas. Sections will be timed. Questions include image identification, multiple choice, visual analysis, and short essay responses. A study guide will be circulated prior to each exam. Exams are not cumulative.

Exam make-up

If there is a documentable reason why you will need to miss an exam (medical / legal appointment, family death / illness, unavoidable schedule conflict), communicate this to the instructor in advance and request alternate arrangements. Missing an exam without a documented reason and prior consultation with the instructor will result in a grade of zero being awarded.

Contributing to the discussion forum

Each week you will contribute to an online discussion forum and respond to one of your classmates' posts. Primary posts are worth 7 points; response posts are worth 3 points for a weekly total of ten possible points. There will be 15 discussion questions for a total of 150 points.

Tech Support:

The College of the Redwoods technical support office can help you with questions regarding the Canvas course management system. They can be reached at (707) 476-4160 from 7:30am – 7:30pm, Monday through Friday.
