Evaluation & Grading Policy

Your grade will be determined out of 1000 points. Class grades will be assigned based on the following cut-offs: 930 is an A, 900 is an A-, 870 is an B+, 830 is a B, 800 is a B-, 770 is a C+, 700 is a C and 600 is a D. You will earn these points by three main types of work:

Weekly Canvas Quizzes (Approximately 380 points, 38% of your final class grade): These will be mostly multiple choice and numerical quizzes. You will get 3 attempts on each quiz. Unless otherwise noted, there will be Canvas quizzes due every Sunday night at 11:55 pm. Extensions and make-ups are available by request for students who don't abuse it.

Weekly In-Class Quizzes: (Approximately 120 points, 12% of your final grade): Unless otherwise announced, each Tuesday after the first week of class, we'll have a short in-class quiz on the material covered on the Canvas quizzes that were due the Sunday night before. Each quiz will be worth 12 points. You are allowed to use any handwritten notes on the quizzes. Make-ups are available at the Academic Support Center as long as you take the quiz before the next class session.

Term Paper: (500 points). This will be a team/group project. More details will follow in a separate document. The basic idea of the paper is to consider arguments BOTH for (Pro) and against (Con) a particular idea or proposition. It will have the following parts:

- Draft Pro Section: due 3/2 (40 points)
- Peer Review of Another Team's Pro Section: due 3/16 (40 points)
- Draft Con Section: due 3/30 (40 points)
- Peer Review of Another Student's Con Section: due 4/13 (40 points)
- Final Project: due 12/20 (300 points)
- Teammate Evaluation: due 5/16 (40 points)
 - I will use the results of the Teammate Evaluation to adjust your score on the rest of the project. If your teammates rate you above average, I'll give you a bump up on the rest of the project. If your teammates rate you below average, I'll reduce your score on the rest of the project.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the 2024-2025 College Catalog and CR Board and Administrative Policies.

AI Use Class Policy

Recent advancements in generative artificial intelligence (AI) have made large language models such as ChatGPT and Google's Bard widely available. Sometimes, using these tools appropriately can help us overcome barriers and allow us to focus on deeper learning. However, overuse of these tools can undermine the development of our critical and creative thinking skills. In addition, AI outputs are often unreliable and frequently subject to bias. For these reasons, it is sometimes appropriate and sometimes inappropriate to use generative AI in the completion of assignments or in discussion posts. For this class, please see the specific assignment instructions for guidance on how and when generative AI tools may be used appropriately as we're working on and learning from a particular assignment. Also, please keep in mind that you are responsible for anything you submit; please carefully review all AI-generated outputs, screening them for accuracy, bias, appropriateness, and fidelity to your perspective.

Disruptive Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the 2024-2025 College Catalog and CR Board and Administrative Policies.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
