EDUC210 - Adult Basic Education

Adult Basic Education is a course in basic education designed to meet the needs of individuals whose education was interrupted below eighth grade level. For some populations, taking Educ 210 prior to entering Educ 225 will be necessary. EDUC 210 is preparation for the GED class, but not all students will need it. Students that have a solid Elementary level education can enter into EDUC 225 without EDUC 210.

Accessibility

Students will have access to online course materials that comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and College of the Redwoods policies. Students who discover access issues with this class should contact the instructor.

College of the Redwoods is also committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

During COVID19, approved accommodations for distance education classes will be emailed to the instructor by DSPS. In the case of face to face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments cannot usually be accommodated.

Support for online learners during COVID-19

In response to COVID-19, College of the Redwoods moved the majority of its courses online to protect health and safety. As the faculty and students adjust to this change, clear communication about student needs will help everyone be successful. Please let me know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. I want every student to thrive.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

...speaking of Canvas.....

--We need to get comfortable using CANVAS in case of illness or quarantine status for any of us. As we move along into the semester, I will start posting more information on Canvas for those who are unable to come to class.

--Arrive to class on time. Stay to enjoy and learn for the whole class period. Try not to disrupt others who are trying to concentrate.

--I might divide our class time by working on GED skills in another room, and then be available for general tutoring/skill building during the rest of the class. We will experiment and determine what method works best for your needs this semester.

--Please let me know whenever you need help. Don't worry about interrupting me. Every question is important.

--Each one of us has an individual way of learning. Please let me know if you have learning differences that I can assist you with or help you to accommodate.

--Enjoy the class and do your best. Learning is fun, and challenging.

--Even though you won't receive a letter grade for this course, please attend regularly; let me know if you will be absent. I will be working closely with the academic advisers to help you work toward your academic goals.

EDUC 225 will cover math skills from arithmetic to prealgebra. Reading and writing skills will also be addressed, utilizing examples from science and social studies. As well as using C/R texts, students can also utilize Khan Academy website lessons. Additional lessons and materials will be provided by the instructor. Students may work toward improving their GED and C/R Math Assessment scores. Individual tutoring in academic areas will also be offered. CASAS testing can also give us information about your progress in reading and math at the beginning and toward the end of the semester.

COURSE MATERIALS: All course materials are provided by the instructor and include self-generated HISSET GED targeted curriculum and texts by the following publishers:

Steck-Vaughn, McGraw-Hill, Kaplan, PBS, and others.
