

Course InformationSemester & Year: FALL 2025Course ID & Section #: EDUC 225-E0759Instructor's name: Wendy ButlerDays-Times: August 25-December 19Location: This is a correspondence course serving Humboldt County Correctional Facility (HCCF), Eureka.Number of units: 0.0 This is a noncredit course.Prerequisites: noneInstructor Contact and Required Materials

The instructor will provide all the course materials.

Catalog Description

A noncredit course providing an overview of the four academic subject areas that comprise the 2014 GED and other high school equivalency tests (i.e., Language Arts, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Science). Computer skills necessary for passing current high school equivalency tests will also be covered. Through the use of diagnostic pretests, course content will emphasize students' needs.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Demonstrate content knowledge in high school secondary education curricula.
2. Demonstrate test taking skills necessary for passing the high school equivalency test.

Educational Accessibility and Support

College of the Redwoods is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for qualified students who could benefit from additional educational support and services. You may qualify if you have a physical, mental, sensory, or intellectual condition which causes you to struggle academically, including but not limited to: Mental health conditions such as depression, anxiety, PTSD, bipolar disorder •Common ailments such as arthritis, asthma, diabetes, autoimmune disorders and diseases •Temporary impairments such as a broken bone, recovery from significant surgery or a pregnancy-related disability •Neurodevelopmental disorders such as a learning disability, intellectual disability, autism, acquired brain injury or ADHD •Vision, hearing or mobility challenges Available services include extended test time, quiet testing environments, academic assistance and tutoring through the LiGHT Center, counseling and advising, alternate formats of course materials (e.g., audio books, braille, E-texts), assistive technology, learning disability assessments, approval for personal attendants, interpreters, priority registration, on-campus transportation, adaptive physical education and living skills courses, and more. If you believe you might benefit from disability- or health-related services and accommodations, put in a request to HCCF Programs to contact Student Accessibility Support Services (SASS) for a consultation.

Class Routine & Feedback

- EDUC 225 is a free, noncredit course designed to provide an overview of and preparation for high school equivalency tests (GED and HiSET). I encourage you to be an active participant in this class as your commitment will additionally help you prepare for your further academic studies and for your life outside the formal education environment. This EDUC 225 Correspondence course includes regular instructor-student communication. I will provide weekly Correspondence Feedback Forms that will address your work on the assignments as well as any questions you have written to me on any papers you submit.
- CR Adult & Community Education's Student Development Advisor Jonny Maiullo is available to meet with you to discuss your interest in registering for all or part of the HiSET as well as continuing with your academic studies and registering for credit classes at CR.