Required Materials

Textbook Title: Understanding Rhetoric: A Guide to Critical Reading and Argumentation
Edition: N/A
Author: Eamon M. Cunningham
ISBN: 978-1-62734-705-1

Catalog Description

Study argumentation and critical thinking in this second-semester composition course focused on reading and writing across multiple academic communities. Practice critical reading and research strategies, examine and evaluate primarily nonfiction texts, and craft responses through argumentative writing. Strengthen your information literacy and documentation skills and satisfy both the full-year composition and the critical thinking transfer requirements.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Write logical, well-developed, thesis-driven essays that respond to questions at issue raised primarily by nonfiction works.
2. Evaluate, use, and document evidence from primary and secondary sources to support, develop, or validate judgments.

Assignment Descriptions

Rhetorical Analysis (1,200 word minimum)

You will be asked to analyze a secondary document to identify the ways in which the author or rhetor constructed their argument. The purpose of this inquiry is to develop your analytic skills when reading non-fiction texts.

Persuasive Speech (1,500 word minimum)

You will be asked to choose a topic that you can take a stance on and write a persuasive speech. The purpose of this inquiry is to develop your argumentation skills.

Researched Argument (1,800 word minimum)

You will be asked to choose a topic that interests you to research and draft an argumentative paper about the topic. The purpose of this inquiry is to practice inquiry driven research.

Required Reading Discussions (150 word minimum)

All required reading discussions ask students to formulate clear, complete thoughts about course readings that they will share with their peers. Students will be expected to actively engage with their peers' discussion posts to earn full credit, which will mean students must do more than simply post once and abandon the thread; instead, students will return to the discussion threads to reply and respond to their peers.

Informal Assignments

This broad category includes informal assignments that will evidence student engagement and participation in the classroom community.

Portfolio

Each student will be responsible for revising their three earlier essays with instructor feedback in mind. You will then turn in the three essays again as a complete portfolio, which will include a page long cover letter.

Required Reading Quizzes

Short five question quizzes that will assess your understanding of core concepts from foundational readings in the course. All quizzes are untimed and primarily essay question based. As well, all quizzes are open book.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Late Work

Late work will not be accepted unless arrangements for an extension were made in advance (prior to the assignment due date). I understand life happens, and very often we find ourselves overwhelmed at the most inopportune of times; however, deadlines should be respected when possible. In order to provide quality, timely feedback I must receive work on time or be given notice that work will be late.

To request an extension I ask that students do the following:

Utilizing canvas messaging, draft a message to me with "Extension [Assignment Name]" in the subject line. In the body of your message explain the situation and then tell me your plan. Do you plan to turn it in tomorrow? Two days? Do you need an additional week?

This information will help me to negotiate with you a revised due date that will fit within both of our schedules. Keep in mind, extensions are granted on a case-to-case basis. I may not always be able to grant an extension. Further, I will not grant an extension after the due date has passed.

Feedback

Quality, timely feedback will be given on all major assignments. Student should expect feedback to come within one week following the assignment's due date. All feedback will be available through canvas.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Community College Student Health and Wellness

Resources, tools, and trainings regarding health, mental health, wellness, basic needs and more designed for California community college students, faculty and staff are available on the California Community Colleges Health & Wellness website.

Wellness Central is a free online health and wellness resource that is available 24/7 in your space at your pace.

Students seeking to request a counseling appointment for academic advising or general counseling can email counseling@redwoods.edu.

Emergency procedures / Everbridge

College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system called Everbridge. In the event of an emergency on campus you will receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones. Registration is not necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Check to make sure your contact information is up-to-date by logging into WebAdvisor <https://webadvisor.redwoods.edu> and selecting 'Students' then 'Academic Profile' then 'Current Information Update.'

Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions. For more information see the Redwoods Public Safety Page.
