Catalog Description

A course for beginning and intermediate ESL students that develops their ability to understand and produce spoken English in everyday life. Students will receive direct pronunciation instruction and participate in controlled pronunciation practice. They will listen to input on topics relevant to their everyday lives, and develop their vocabulary based on what they hear. Students will practice speaking to ask for clarification and to clearly communicate important information. All course concepts will be applied to the development of students' oral communication skills in authentic situations.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Students will be able to respond comprehensibly to simple, unrehearsed questions soliciting personal information for authentic oral communication.
2. Students will be able to ask simple, unrehearsed questions and understand common responses in order to gather new information in everyday situations.
3. Students will be able to apply techniques like circumlocution and asking for repetition to repair breakdowns in oral communication.
4. Students will be able to respond comprehensibly to simple, unrehearsed questions about present situations for authentic oral communication.

Recommended Preparation

ESL 200 and/or ESL 201.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS at their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor

- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Academic Dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, that student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
