Catalog Description

An introduction to the interpretation and use of aerial photographs, electronically generated imagery, and remote-sensing data. Students will learn the theory and practice of gathering and examining remote-sensing data, the classification of land areas, and the measurement of ground-based objects from aerial and space derived data.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Discuss theory and application of remote sensing data in natural resource management.
2. Calculate, interpret, and analyze relevant data from aerial and space derived data.
3. Lab Specific Outcome: Develop analyses and maps from remotely sensed data sources.

Course Student Learning Objectives

- Describe the electromagnetic radiation spectrum and how this relates to remote sensing.
- Explain how various surfaces on the Earth's surface absorb, emit, and reflect shortwave and longwave radiation and how that is used in remote sensing.
- Determine how space derived and Earth derived remote sensing data is gathered, rendered, rectified, and displayed.
- Use current technologies to gather, display, manipulate, interpret, and present remotely sensing data (ArcGIS).
- Prepare a relevant cartographically correct map using remote sensing data.
- Know how to gather and apply different remote sensing systems: aerial photography (black and white, color, infrared, and color infrared), multispectral scanners, thermal, and other systems including Radar, and LiDAR systems.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

FNR-31 Introduction to Geospatial Concepts

Technical Requirements

As this is an online course, you already know you need reliable internet access (broadband or DSL) and a browser installed on your computer. If you encounter problems with their internet connection while working on this course, it is their responsibility to find an alternative internet access point, such as a public library. The Chrome browser is the recommended browser for interacting with the course. Note: Cookies and JavaScript must be enabled. Pop-up blockers should be configured to permit new windows from the Geospatial Institute and CR websites. Other browsers, such as Safari, Edge, and Microsoft Explorer are not recommended for this course.

If you do not have a personal computer that please refer to the College of the redwoods online support page. Additionally, if your computer is not compatible with the GIS software there is potential virtual lab access. The instructor will announce how to access the virtual lab for those students who require it. The virtual lab has limited space and will be reserved for students who do not have access to a personal computer that is capable of handling course software and materials. If you think that you may need access to the CR virtual lab, please contact the professor during the first week of the course.

Students working from personal computers that do not need the CR virtual lab are required to install or have access to the following software:

- ArcGIS Desktop Student Edition (ArcGIS student licenses are available for all students currently enrolled in a geospatial class.) YOU MUST EMAIL THE INSTRUCTOR OF THE COURSE WITHIN THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASS TO RECEIVE YOUR PERSONAL ACTIVATION CODE. This is extremely important because currently CR has an extremely limited virtual lab, and students will need to run the ArcGIS software from their personal computers to be able to participate in this course. IT IS REQUIRED.
- 7-Zip (7-Zip \(Links to an external site.\)) is a free, open-source file compression/decompression utility) Installing 7zip on Windows 10 \(Links to an external site.\)
- Microsoft Office \(Links to an external site.\)
- Adobe Acrobat Reader \(Links to an external site.\)
- Zoom \(Links to an external site.\)

Additional requirements if you are using your own computer:

Operating System Windows 7, Windows 8/8.1, 10 or higher

| | |
|----------------------------|---|
| Processor | 2 GHz or higher |
| Memory | 8 GB of RAM |
| Graphics Card | NVIDIA or AMD is required to work properly with some of the ESRI ArcGIS extensions. |

| Additional Software | Java 1.7 or later (https://java.com/en/download/), Adobe Acrobat Reader |
| Speakers | Required (or headphones) |
| Monitor | Capable of at least 1024 x 768 resolution |

Accessing the Software

Because of the transition to online instruction, access to software is the responsibility of individual students. If you will be working in the field, or other environment with intermittent internet access, please contact your instructor about other methods for acquiring the requisite course software.

Computers on Campus

Because of the need for social distancing and safety, lab policies and access have changed. Watch for announcements on the canvas course page for updates. There is potential virtual lab access, and the instructor will announce how to access the virtual lab for those students who require it. The virtual lab has limited space and will be reserved for students who do not have access to a personal computer that is capable of handling course software and materials. If you think that you may need access to the CR virtual lab, please contact the professor during the first week of the course.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website.
