Catalog Description

An introduction to the principles of sustainable trails that touches on each aspect of trail maintenance to assess trail needs, prescribe maintenance solutions, and execute basic trail maintenance. This course provides the broad overview of the different types of trails, surfaces, locations, user types, difficulty levels, and experiences. Students will understand the general goals of trail design principles. No prior experience in trail building is needed. Includes coordinated lab experience.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Apply knowledge of trail construction and maintenance to make informed decisions about their personal lives, career or educational choices, and the communities in which they live.
2. Acquire, articulate, create and convey knowledge and understanding on the subject of trail construction and maintenance using a variety of methods of communication.
3. Identify and examine field examples of concepts explored in coursework and their implications for the study of trail construction and maintenance.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Evaluation for this course is based on your performance of the following assignments:

Attendance and Active Participation (10) – 25 point per week = 250 points

Weekly Reflection writeup (10) – 25 points per week = 250 points

Total Points = 500 points

Grades will be posted to Canvas in a timely manner after an assignment is completed.

Semester grades will be based on the percentage of the total possible points earned over the semester. Letter grades will be broken down as follows:

90-100% = A

80-89% = B

70-79% = C

60-69% = D

Below 60% = F

Active Participation:

Assessment of trail building terminology, principles and construction techniques will be conducted informally in the field during the lab period.

Missed class periods can be made up by participating in a volunteer workday sponsored by the Humboldt Trails Stewards. Contact your instructor for more information.

Weekly Reflection assignments:

Each week you are responsible for completing a Weekly reflection by following the Weekly reflection template on Canvas. Write-ups can be uploaded to Canvas and are due the following Tuesday at 11:59pm.

No late assignments will be accepted, and you will receive zero points for that week. These Weekly reflections give you a chance to reflect on your experience and demonstrate what you have gained by participating in the learning activity. Each Weekly reflection is worth 25 points and is graded based on the following rubric:

Criteria	Meets Expectation	Needs Improvement	Does Not Meet Expectations
Content 20 points	20 points Clearly and thoughtfully responds to the lec/lab prompts with sufficient detail and explanation.	15 points Responds to the lec/lab prompts but responses lack adequate detail and/or clear explanations.	10 points Responses do not adequately address the prompt. Responses severely lack detail and explanation.
Timeliness 5 points	5 points Assignment was turned in by the required due date (Tuesday by 11:59pm).

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas
