Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Expectations and Orientation

- You will be expected to follow all rules, posted signs and traffic laws while on the College of the Redwoods facilities. Failure to follow laws and rules will result in a citation.
- You are representing the College of the Redwoods, Cal Fire, and your academy class. Your actions whether good or bad reflect on the reputation of the college, Cal Fire, and your fellow students. You will respect staff, instructors, and other students always. This academy focuses on following instructions and teamwork, there is no “I” in teamwork. If you have trouble working with others, acting responsibly, and following directions this may not be the place for you.
- You will be expected to adhere to Cal Fire grooming standards for the duration of the academy. See attached Grooming Standards No. 87 July 2002
- You will be expected to attend and participate in all activities and class days. This includes physical training, set-up, and clean-up of daily activities.
- You will need to bring exercise clothing to participate in the Physical Training. (Running shoes, shorts, and T shirt, etc.) Daily physical fitness participation is mandatory during the academy. If you are not actively engaged in a well-rounded fitness routine that includes strength training, cardiovascular conditioning, and flexibility, it is strongly recommended that you do so immediately. (PT will be the first hour of each class day: rain or shine)

- You will be expected to be on time for all activities and class days. If you are unable to attend because of sickness, family emergency, etc., you will notify the academy coordinator by phone (707) 476-4541. Leaving a message describing what the issue for your absence entails.
- You will be expected to be in uniform for all activities and class days. Uniform button up shirts and pants for classroom, uniform T-shirt and pants for other activities, and physical training T-shirt, sweatshirt, black shorts and / or black sweatpants.
- To successfully complete this course, you will need to attain a minimum score of 80% on all summative (Mid-Term and Final) tests. You will need to successfully complete all activities and formative (quizzes to see how you are doing) tests. You will need to complete all performance skill testing and successfully complete all instructional skills until proficient.
- You will need a doctor's release letter stating that you are clear to participate in physical training and the arduous activities that are involved in this course. Without this release you will not be able to enroll in the course.
- You will be responsible for equipment and materials loaned to you during this academy. Loss of or damage to equipment is the responsibility of the individual student, and appropriate fees will be charged to the student by the College of the Redwoods and or vendor.
- If your Fire Chief approves the use of department PPE/SCBA, you must inform him/her that the equipment will be damaged and may not be serviceable after the academy. College of the Redwoods is not responsible for any damage. A signed letter from your Chief authorizing the use of department PPE must be returned to the Fire Academy Director. All equipment must be NFPA compliant.
- College of the Redwoods does not provide personal lockers for your academy equipment. You are responsible for transporting your gear to school every day and always having it available. DO NOT leave equipment visible in your vehicle. Lock items in your trunk.

- Academic Misconduct: The fire service is respected for its' honesty, and its' professional conduct must be above question. Cheating, plagiarism, collusion, abuse of resource materials, computer misuse, fabrication or falsification, multiple submissions, complicity in Academic misconduct, and or bearing false witness will not be tolerated. Violation will be dealt with according to the procedures and sanctions proscribed by College of the Redwoods. Students caught plagiarizing or cheating on exams will be dismissed from the academy. The student code of conduct is available on the College of the Redwoods website:
