Required Materials

- The required, zero cost textbook is College Success from OpenStax. It can be read online, and it is also available as a free .pdf file. If you want to purchase the book, the ISBN for the paperback version is 978-1951693183.
- A textbook that I recommend is How to Become a Straight A Student ISBN 978-0767922715. We will be looking at this book throughout the course for some optional assignments. You don't have to purchase this book, but it is good, and I will show you some ideas in it.

Catalog Description

This course introduces students to the social, psychological, and physical aspects of self-development including the personal, interpersonal, and academic skills required to successfully set and achieve one's goals in college and throughout life. The course emphasizes the development of the critical self-awareness, resiliency, and integrity necessary to face the inevitable challenges of academic, personal, and career pursuits. Additional topics will include developing college-level study skills, utilizing campus resources, engaging in student education planning, and forming a compassionate attitude towards self and others in the context of a diverse society and campus learning community.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

- Identify the common challenges that students face throughout their college experience and the services available on campus to support them.
- Explore college culture, expectations, and processes to create a comprehensive individual career and academic plan.
- Practice essential student skills such as interpersonal communication skills, emotional intelligence, time management, effective study techniques, research methods, and self-advocacy.

- Explain the value of self-reflection and life-long learning as it relates to college, career and personal fulfillment.
- Engage in dialogue regarding cultural humility, inclusivity, and the benefits of a college experience that includes working with peers and instructors from diverse backgrounds.

Course Calendar

This late-start class begins on February 2, 2026, and ends on May 15, 2026. We will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 8:20 AM to 10:00 AM in the LRC room L105. Refer to the Textbook Chapter Reading Schedule for weekly topics and major assignment due dates.

Evaluation and Grading Policy

Your final grade for the course will be based on the following criteria:

1. Written Assignments and Course Activities, 50%
2. Quizzes, 20%
3. Course Project – Career and Education Plan, 20%
4. Final Examination, 10%

Written Assignments and Class Activities are assignments that require in-class participation, a written response, an essay, or a report-out on an activity.

Quizzes will utilize multiple choice, fill in the blank, and short answer questions.

Your Course Project will be a documented report that will detail your plans to achieve success in college, career, and life.

We will have a Final Examination on Monday, May 11, 2026, from 8:30 AM to 10:30 AM.

Grades will be assigned according to these percentages:

A = 90 – 100%
B = 80 – 89%
C = 70 – 79%
D = 60 – 69%
F = 0 – 59%
