Catalog Description

An exploration of the evolution of civilization in the greater Mediterranean region from the development of Paleolithic and Neolithic societies in the Ancient Near East through the Renaissance/Reformation in Europe. Students will examine the multicultural roots of basic institutions, practices, and ideas of Western civilization, such as monotheism, the scientific method, capitalism, and colonialism. Special attention will be paid to changing configurations of political, social, economic, and ideological power, and the region's developing ties to the Atlantic world.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Analyze and assess the merits of various historical interpretations.
2. Analyze significant historical developments (social, cultural, political, economic, religious, technological/scientific, ideological) through the application of the historical concepts of process, context, and/or difference.
3. Apply secondary and/or primary source material to construct written and oral, logical, historical arguments.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

None

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Required Texts

1. Cole and Symes, Western Civilizations. Volume I. Brief Fifth Edition. Norton, 2020. ISBN 978-0-393-41897-2. Paper or ebook.
2. A. Queen, ed., HIST-4 Primary Source Anthology (online and free on our Canvas class website)

Communication

The best way to reach me is with a message in Canvas. You can also use my CR email (abigail-queen@redwoods.edu). I will reply as soon as possible, definitely within a few business days.

Participation

If you have excessive absences you may be withdrawn from the class up to the tenth week of the semester. The CR catalog states that absences may be considered excessive when cumulative absences exceed the total number of hours that the class meets during one week. In an online classroom, this means that if you have not submitted any work or contacted me for one week, you may be withdrawn from the class roster. I will send you a message before taking that step. If you miss class, please stay in touch by sending me a quick message.

Late submissions

Assignments may be submitted late, except for the midterm and final exams. Points will be deducted for lateness each day to a maximum late penalty of 5 points for Reading Guides and 10 points for papers. No coursework may be submitted after the last day of the semester.

Plagiarism

Academic dishonesty such as plagiarism will result in a score of 0 for that assignment. Repeated offenses will result in serious disciplinary action at the college level. Plagiarism is copying directly from another source, word for word, without using quotes and citing the source. Do not copy. Use your own words. It is a violation of college policy to “recycle” work, for example, submitting a paper for credit in this class that you have submitted or will submit for credit in another class. If you are not sure what counts as plagiarism, please ask me for some guidance.

Detail of coursework

Each week you will need to:

1. Complete the reading quiz (on Canvas) about the required reading in the Western Civilizations textbook.
2. Attend class: listen to lectures, take notes, complete in-class quizzes, participate in group discussions.
3. Read a primary source text from the HIST-4 Primary Source Anthology or the Western Civilizations textbook. Answer quiz questions (on Canvas) and participate in group discussion about the primary source.

Reading Guides (~20 points each)

A Canvas quiz about the required reading in the Western Civilizations textbook is due BEFORE class each Wednesday. Ideally, you should complete this reading quiz before class Monday if possible. You can easily answer the questions as you complete the reading. Reading quizzes are untimed, with unlimited submission attempts.

Source Responses (~ 10 points each)

A Canvas quiz about a selected text in the HIST-4 Primary Source Anthology is due BEFORE class each Wednesday. Be prepared to share your responses in a group discussion activity in class.

In-Class Activities (~5 points each)

Unannounced group activities will sometimes occur in class. These activities may not be made up if missed.

Source Analysis Paper (80 points)

Choose a primary source relevant to the history of Western Civilization to c. 100 CE. Write approximately 800 words using the source as a window onto the past: discuss how the source reflects, enriches, and/or challenges what we know about history. Use your knowledge of its historical context (such as the political, economic, cultural etc. background) to explain what the source meant to people in its own day, and what it can tell us about their world.

Find full instructions, sample papers, and grading rubric on Canvas. I am happy to give you feedback on rough draft material if you send it to me well ahead of the due date.

Research Paper (150 points)

Write approximately 2,000 words exploring a thesis of your choice relevant to the history of Western Civilization to the Reformation. Cite at least 1 reliable primary source and at least 2 reliable secondary sources. List sources in a bibliography at the end of the paper.

A Research Paper workshop and in-class quiz will help you get started on this assignment. Find full instructions, sample papers, and the grading rubric on Canvas. I am happy to give you feedback on rough draft material if you send it to me well ahead of the due date.

Midterm and Final Exams (150 points each)

The midterm and final exams will test your knowledge of material from lecture and the textbook. Each exam has two parts (75 points each): a timed multiple choice section and an untimed essay. The exams are online and open resource: you may refer to your lecture notes (your most valuable resource on the exams), your book, or the internet. You may take the exam in our classroom using your laptop during our regular meeting time, or elsewhere on your own before the end of the week. Sample questions on Canvas and an in-class study session will help you prepare. If you attend class regularly and participate, you will do well on the exams. The exams may NOT be submitted late – NO exceptions.

Participation (4 points per class)

Participation in the class discussions is worth 2 points per class.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Grades are calculated on a simple point basis. Your course grade will be calculated as a percentage of (points you earned) out of (the total points possible) and converted to a letter grade based on the following scale. No assignments are weighted.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

Canvas Information

If using Canvas, include navigation instructions, tech support information, what Canvas is used for, and your expectation for how regularly students should check Canvas for your class.
