Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

Student Feedback Policy

Timely feedback will be provided throughout the course. Students will receive a response to any email inquiries within 48 hours. Feedback on work submitted will be provided no more than two weeks after the assignment is due but my expectation will be to return work within one week after the assignment due date.

This course will also have regular asynchronous contact through threaded discussion boards and weekly announcements.

Proctored Exams

Proctored exams are not required in this course.

Student Accessibility Statement

These standards are required by federal regulation. Students will have access to this course that complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and College of the Redwoods policies. Course materials will include a text equivalent for all non-text elements; videos will include closed captioning, images will include alt-tags, hyperlinks will use descriptive/meaningful phrases instead of URLs and audio files will include transcripts. All text will be formatted for use with screen readers and all course materials will be understandable without the use of color.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Technology skills, requirements, and support

Tech equipment and skills are required for student success and of equal importance as required textbooks and materials.

Students can obtain a free Office 365 license (includes Word, Excel, PowerPoint and more) with a valid CR email.

Necessary Computer Skills – Ability to log into webadvisor, Canvas LMS, navigate the internet, and use a word processor. Before contacting Technical Support please visit the Online Support Page. For password issues with Canvas, Web Advisor or your mycr.redwoods.edu email, contact <mailto:its@redwoods.edu> or call 707-476-4160 or 800-641-0400 ext. 4160 between 8:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M., Monday through Friday.

Course Assignments:

Group Essay Quizzes: Three times throughout the semester there will be a group exam. Groups will be selected randomly and the exam will be taken in the classroom. There will be a total of four questions on the exam.

Final Exam: The final exam will consist of four essay questions but will be completed individually instead of within a group.

Primary Source Summaries: Five times throughout the semester (six if an individual wants extra credit) students will submit a primary source summary of at least 300 words. The primary source summary must include a summary of the primary source, a brief discussion about the author of the work, and it must include the citation for the primary source document. The list of primary sources to choose from will vary depending upon which primary source summary is being submitted.

Research Paper:

Choose one of the following two prompts:

After reading The Radical King, a collection of speeches by MLK Jr., write a research paper that answers the following question(s). Examine the radical nature of the speeches and actions of Martin Luther King Jr.; Why did King believe that to end racial inequality it was also important to reduce wealth inequality? How did the Vietnam War combined with racial inequality lead to race riots in the 1960s? The position that greater economic equality and ending Vietnam was vital to ending racial tension in the United States.

Or

After reading The Radical King, a collection of speeches by MLK Jr., write a research paper analyzing the primary tactics used to fight against racial inequality from Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois to the modern Black Lives Matter movement.

At least three primary sources (each speech can count as a primary source) and three secondary sources are required to be used for the research paper. The research paper should be at least six pages (not counting the title page and the references) and no more than ten pages. The paper must also be typed, double spaced, Times New Roman size 12 font and APA citations.

Citations: All citations and references in this course will use APA citation standards. If you need assistance the Purdue University Online Writing Lab is an excellent resource as a citation guide.

Instructor Expectations of Students:

1. Show up to class on time and be prepared to participate in the lecture and discussion that day.
2. Be courteous not only to me but to your fellow classmates. One can disagree and debate without it becoming personal.
3. Challenge yourself. One of the hardest things in the world to do is admit when one is wrong (I am guilty of this myself), but in order to learn we have to accept that we don't know everything and some of our preconceived ideas may be wrong. Just as I intend to challenge you, I ask that if you feel I am wrong you have the right to challenge me but just as I will bring facts to my discussions if you think that I am wrong bring with you facts from reputable sources not emotions.

Student Expectations of Instructor: (To be filled in during first day of class)

Student Expectations of Other Students: (To be filled in during first day of class)
