Catalog Description

An interactive, beginning course that builds vocabulary and presents the fundamentals of Hupa conversation. The course teaches interpersonal, communicative use of all language skills, but places a particular emphasis on listening and speaking. The course expands on inflecting Hupa verbs for the six tenses: imperfective, perfective, customary, optative, progressive and warning. Utilizes written texts to practice literacy, speaking and exploring the many patterns of this Athabascan language. Note: This course is not appropriate for students who have taken and passed four or more years of Hupa within the past four years.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Comprehend, and answer questions about, the content of short, basic texts.
2. Use the Hupa alphabet to compose simple, written communication.
3. Comprehend basic spoken Hupa and use appropriate beginning level vocabulary and grammar to express oneself and communicate using cultural awareness.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

Hupa 1A is a prerequisite for 2 years of prior study of Hupa Language.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Daily Assignments60%

Daily Assignments include completing verb conjugations, participating in Accelerated Secondary Language Acquisition Method, lessons on orthography (writing system), reading Hupa Language books, singing songs to help build vocabulary, lessons of basketry designs, etc. You will get out of the class what you put into it.

Midterm10%

On 10/13/2022, we will have a midterm examination. The exam will be mostly written focusing on the verbs we have worked with. There will also be an oral part involving some of the ASLA pictures.

Participation.....20%

If you are unable to attend class, you need to contact the instructor and let him know what is going on. Lectures and instruction will be recorded with Zoom. This will allow you to catch up on the Daily Assignments and stay caught up.

Final Project.....10%

The Final Exam will be mostly written with some oral. The Final Exam date will be announced to be consistent with the College of the Redwoods Final schedule.

Falling Behind

Despite our best efforts, sometimes life gets in the way of school. Sometimes other classes end up requiring more work than expected, so school gets in the way of school! I've been there in both cases and have had to drop classes mid-semester because I had too much on my plate. So I totally understand. I'm here to help you and don't feel like you owe me an apology for doing your best to balance your life. But let's assume the worst happens, and for some reason you fall behind... If this happens and you feel like you cannot complete the class, you can withdraw from the class. This means you get a W instead of an F on your transcript, which is much better for your GPA.

A	89.5	≤ Grade	≤ 100
B	79.5	≤ Grade	< 89.5
C	69.5	≤ Grade	< 79.5
D	59.5	≤ Grade	< 69.5
F	0	≤ Grade	< 59.5

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
