

Syllabus for KINS-66 Concept of Physical Fitness and Exercise

Course Information

Semester & Year: Spring 2025

Course ID & Section #: KINS-66-V8195

Instructor's name: Marla Gleave

Location: On-Line only, no classroom meetings are required.

Number of proctored exams: 0

Course units: 3

Instructor Contact Information

Office location or *Online: On-line office hours by appointment. Please email to arrange phone discussion.

Office hours: by appointment. Email to schedule.

Phone number: by appointment. Email to schedule.

Email address: marla-gleave@redwoods.edu

Textbook: Principles and Labs for Fitness & Wellness, 16th edition. Authors are Hoeger, Hoeger, Fawson & Hoeger. Cengage Learning ISBN number is 9780357727508.

If by chance you can find a 15th edition on-line, you are free to use it. Just know that the page numbers I state in the lessons every week will reference the 16th edition page numbers.

Other Materials: It is best to use a computer for all your course work and submissions as just using your phone to write essays, reports, and take part in the discussion forum becomes very difficult to navigate and at times difficult to submit.

RUNKEEPER phone app: this app will be used to track your 2 weekly cardiorespiratory exercise sessions. Details of this requirement will be stated in the Week 3 Module. If you are currently using an exercise tracking/reporting app, you can continue to use it and do not have to switch to RunKeeper.

Catalog Description

A course designed to introduce the principles of cardiorespiratory fitness, body composition, flexibility, and muscular strength/endurance. Physiological adaptations to exercise and reduction to disease risk are studied as are the basic principles of nutrition and how nutrition affects performance and fitness.

- This course fulfills the CSU-GE Area E: Lifelong Learning requirement.
- This course is also a required course for the CR Personal Trainer Certificate of Recognition and starting in Fall 2025, this course will fulfill a requirement for the Personal Trainer Certificate of Achievement.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Create, analyze, and perform personal fitness goals in the areas of cardiorespiratory fitness, body composition, flexibility, muscular strength, and muscular endurance.
2. Create and analyze various exercise prescriptions related to the F.I.T.T. Principle and other Principles of Exercise.
3. Explain assessment techniques of resistance training, cardiorespiratory fitness, body composition measurements, and flexibility.
4. Explain the combined role of nutrients and exercise physiology in energy expenditure, weight management, and degenerative diseases.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

None.

Educational Accessibility & Support

College of the Redwoods is committed to providing reasonable accommodation for qualified students who could benefit from additional educational support and services. You may qualify if you have a physical, mental, sensory, or intellectual condition which causes you to struggle academically, including but not limited to:

- Mental health conditions such as depression, anxiety, PTSD, bipolar disorder, and ADHD
- Common ailments such as arthritis, asthma, diabetes, autoimmune disorders, and diseases
- Temporary impairments such as a broken bone, recovery from significant surgery, or a pregnancy-related disability
- A learning disability (e.g., dyslexia, reading comprehension), intellectual disability, autism, or acquired brain injury
- Vision, hearing, or mobility challenges

Available services include extended test time, quiet testing environments, tutoring, counseling and advising, alternate formats of materials (e.g., audio books, E-texts), assistive technology, on-campus transportation, and more. If you believe you might benefit from disability- or health-related services and accommodations, please contact Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). If you are unsure whether you qualify, please contact DSPS for a consultation: dsps@redwoods.edu.

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, Student Services Building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, Main Building, near the library

- Klamath-Trinity: 707-476-4280

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy: Estimated that 250 points possible throughout the semester.

Final Grade scale:

A= 95-100%

A-= 90-94%

B+ = 86-89%

B = 83-85%

B- = 80-82%

C+ = 75-79%

C = 70-74%

D = 60-69%

F = 59% and below

Fraudulent enrollments and Use of AI:

Fraudulent enrollments are on the rise. To ensure that real students are the only ones enrolled in this class, no shows will be dropped as early as the first Friday of the course. Also, throughout the semester, if you are suspected of being a bot, you will be dropped from the class. If you have been dropped but are a real student, contact me right away to be reinstated.

Real students and use of Chat AI apps:

If you as a real student use ChatGPT, or any other AI app/program, to answer discussion, homework, and/or test questions, I will dock points from your score. If I suspect you are not doing your own work, I will reach out to you and allow you to adjust your approach so that you begin to think for yourself. If you continue to use AI, instead of your own awesome thoughts, I will drop you from the course anytime between week 1 and week 10.

Integrity

Integrity in everything you do in your life is a hallmark personal and professional trait. Taking college courses is an avenue for educational growth. Please exhibit integrity by using your own wonderful mind to think analytically and apply course concepts to all the requirements of this course.

Course Requirements:

Weekly Requirements and how to navigate CANVAS to find the weekly information:

- Each week a new module will open and the module will contain links for the lesson, discussion, and assignments due. The module will open every Monday morning with due dates on Thursday and/or Sunday. Be sure to read each weeks Module on Monday so you know what is expected of you by Thursday night first deadline and Sunday night 2nd deadline. The module will close each Sunday night.
- Weekly discussion deadlines will be Thursday for your initial post and Sunday for your response. Not every week will have a discussion, but the majority of the weeks will.
- Most weeks you need to complete a task and reading by Thursday, as the discussion post for the week will be directly related to the task/information. It is recommended that you read the lesson each Monday so that you can time-manage your week, not only for this course, but for all courses you are taking.
- Rubrics for Discussions: For the weeks a discussion occurs, you will earn points for creating your initial post using terms and concepts per the assignment (up to 8 points possible) by the Thursday night deadline. In addition, responding to a classmate by the Sunday night deadline using the guidelines identified in that week's discussion requirements (up to 2 points possible). Of these possible 10 discussion points, you will lose points for being either late on your Thursday post, your Sunday post, or late on both. Loss of points will also occur if you do not address all the discussion details in the thought and depth of thinking required.

Other Course Requirements and Assignments:

- Individual Exercise Prescription Portfolio: Throughout the semester various assignments will be given with the objective for the student to develop their own personal exercise and nutrition portfolio. Assignments spread throughout the semester will include target heart rate calculations, 15 exercise sessions of which an app called RUNKEEPER will be used, nutrition analysis, body composition analysis, and various labs from the textbook. Points for all these assignments will be approximately 100 points. More details on each assignment will be explained in the week they are assigned. You can currently find more details on the portfolio in the resources module and it will also be stated again during week 3 of the semester.
- Case Studies: For some chapters, in lieu of quizzes or exams, a case study analysis of a mock client will be required. Within this analysis you will be required to correctly use terms and concepts from the chapter. Details of each mock client assignment will be explained in detail during the week assigned.
- Chapter Labs: various labs located at the back of chapters will be assigned. Not all labs will be completed, only those that I identify as needed.
- Quizzes and Exams: Each chapter will have either a case study as its quiz or a true quiz of approximately 10-25 points. There is one major exam of up to 50-60 points related to Chapter 6. A study guide will be supplied for the major Chapter 6 exam.

Weekly Discussion Forum Grading Format:

- For the weeks a discussion occurs, you will earn points for creating your initial post using terms and concepts per the discussion directions (up to 8 points possible) by the Thursday night deadline, and
- Responding to the discussion by the Sunday night deadline using the guidelines identified in that week's discussion requirements (up to 2 points possible). Some weeks you respond to a classmate and other weeks you have the opportunity to respond to yourself and improve your Thursday night post.
- Of these possible 10 discussion points, you will lose points for being either late on your Thursday post, your Sunday post, or late on both. Loss of points will also occur if you do not address all the discussion details in the thought and depth of thinking required.

Student Commitment:

This online class will require at least as much time as you dedicate to a traditional lecture class. Plan to need at least 4-6 hours a week to read the weekly lesson and the textbook chapter information, take part in discussions, submit homework assignments, do research on various assignments, and complete chapter quizzes. Some weeks will be more intensive than others. Time Management for not only this course, but all your courses, is important to your success.

Computer Skills: Online courses require computer skills. Before beginning, make sure you can:

- navigate the course Learning Management System (Canvas),
- receive and respond to your CR email,
- upload and download files using Canvas, and
- use a word processor (such as Microsoft Word).

It is very difficult to take part in a lecture class solely using your phone as the ability to craft answers to homework questions, write article reviews, etc is compromised.

Technology Requirements:

- It is highly, highly recommended that you complete your assignments using a computer and NOT a mobile device. Mobile devices and CANVAS do not always integrate and your ability to read the lessons and complete homework tasks may be compromised on a mobile device.
- What a mobile device is good for, however, is the ability to quickly read instructor announcements, check your grade, and either send or reply to a canvas email. Please download the CANVAS student app to your phone. It is free and is found in the app store on your phone.
- The CANVAS student app will allow you access to all your classes, not just KINS-65.

Student Resources: There are instructions on how to log in to Canvas, the basics of using Canvas, and additional support for taking an online course at College of the Redwoods on the CR-Online web page.

Weekly CANVAS Format and Deadlines:

Each week a new module will open on Monday morning and close on Sunday night. The module will contain links for the weekly lesson, discussion, assignments, and quiz due. Be sure to pay attention to due dates throughout the week.

The majority of weeks you will need to complete a task and/or reading by Thursday as the discussion post for the week will be directly related to the task/information. It is recommended that you open and view the module each Monday so that you can see what is required throughout the week. This will allow you to time-manage your week, not only for this course, but for all courses you are taking.

Important note about CANVAS showing deadlines: CANVAS does not allow instructors to set two deadlines within the same week for discussions and/or assignments. The deadline you will see in your Canvas TO DO area will only show the ending deadline. Know that in this class, your first discussion post is always due on a THURSDAY night and your response will be due on Sunday nights. It is the Sunday night date that will show in your TO DO section. This goes for all your classes, not just KINS-66, so be sure you read and understand all mid-week deadlines in ALL your classes so you don't lose points.

The EW Petition is available from the Admissions and Records Forms Webpage. Supporting documentation is required.

Student and instructor initiated drop dates and drop policies:

Faculty Initiated Drop Policies: A student can be dropped from the course by their instructor in a manner of three different ways and three different deadlines.

1. A student who does not attend the first week of classes will be faculty dropped by Friday noon of the first week of the semester in order to make roster room for a wait-listed student.
2. A student who attends the first class or the first week but then fails to attend the second week of the semester will be faculty dropped by the end of the 2nd week (CENSUS date) of the semester in order to fulfill the college policy of confirming the course roster per California Community College Chancellor's Office census roster reporting requirements.
3. Excessive Absence Policy: Redwoods Community College District has an excessive absence policy which allows instructors to drop a student after the census date and anytime throughout the end of the 10th week of the semester. Each instructor is able to define their own excessive absence criteria. For the purpose of this class, excessive absence is defined as a student not attending class for two consecutive weeks without communication with the instructor on reason for absence and creating a plan on returning to class. For the Spring 2025 semester, the end of the 10th week is March 28, 2025. A Withdraw (W) will appear on the official student transcript.

Student Initiated Withdraw from course:

1. Students can withdraw themselves anytime from the start of the course until the Friday of the second week of the course and not have a Withdraw (W) stated on their official college transcript. A refund, minus Student Services fees, will occur.
2. Students may also withdraw themselves between the start of week 3 and the end of week 10 (October 27, 2023) but this timeframe will result in a Withdraw (W) stated on their official college transcript and NO refunds.
3. It is advised that a student meet with a CR counselor prior to withdrawing from a course to understand any repercussions that a Withdraw on their official transcript may create.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. It does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
