Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Course Description

This is a combination beginning and intermediate voice class that will provide both group class work and solo work. The first part of the period will be spent learning vocal techniques and songs. The class will learn several songs from various genres, including folk, traditional, musical theatre, art and foreign language songs. The second part of the period will be devoted to solo singing with emphasis on improving specific vocal techniques and skills as needed for each individual. Students are allowed to bring in their own music. The song needs to be confirmed by the instructor.

MUSIC 26 A and B OBJECTIVES:

- ❖ improve and explore the voice
- ❖ demonstrate effective posture and breathing techniques
- ❖ develop a vocal range of one and a half octaves
- ❖ master the basic principles of public performance - to become more comfortable and at ease in vocal performance
- ❖ build a repertoire of songs in a number of different styles
- ❖ sing foreign language songs with correct diction
- ❖ learn about expression through singing
- ❖ communicate by using the voice as an instrument

OBJECTIVES MUSIC 27 A and B:

In addition to the above-stated objectives, Music 27 students will:

- ❖ develop a vocal range of two octaves
- ❖ master performance practices appropriate to specific vocal genres.
- ❖ demonstrate the ability to sing with sensitivity to phrasing, dynamics, and word meaning
- ❖ develop presentation and characterization skills in the context of live performance
- ❖ build a repertoire of songs for public performance and audition.
- ❖ basic understanding of IPA

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Attendance is crucial. It's a "lab" class, so you need to be present to learn, 30%

The class will be divided into two grading criteria: one for those who are beginners with solo singing (Beginning) and the other for those who have had solo singing experience (Intermediate). Weekly discussions on a variety of vocal related subjects, e.g. vocal technique, diction, performance practice, musical expression, how to read a musical manuscript, etc.

Written performance review (criteria discussed in class and posted on Canvas)

One concert/vocal performance report due final week of classes, Wednesday May 3. This can be either from a live or downloaded performance by one or more singers (any styles is acceptable in a concert, recital, opera, musical theatre or other performance setting). The review needs to be a minimum of 2 pages: 12 font, 1" margins. You will be graded on content and grammar, 15%

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTSBEGINNING LEVEL (26A/B)

Two solos for 26A, one by mid-semester and the other before the end of the semester. Three solos for 26B, one or two by mid-semester and one or two by the end of the semester. You are very welcome to perform more, but it's not required, 20%

INTERMEDIATE LEVELS

(27A/B) 4 memorized solos; 2 by mid-semester and 2 solos by the end of the semester, 20%

Final Performance

Sing one song from memory with accompaniment. Present the Alternative Media Project (criteria discussed in class and posted on Canvas). Finals week May 8-12, 2023, 15%

Come to class ready to explore and take risks. The more prepared you are, the more you will get out of the class.

Effort counts for a lot!
