Contractual goals will be set between instructor and student. A comprehensive fitness course designed for students with disabilities. This class is in a weight room setting with access to adaptive equipment. Individual and group instruction will be provided. Areas to be covered include, lifetime fitness programs, flexibility-range of motion, cardiovascular conditioning, general strength training. An individual goal for each student will be closely monitored by the instructor with the use of a pre and post semester physical assessment.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Maintain and update an exercise workout log that progresses in pounds, repetitions and sets.
2. Analyze and demonstrate safe use and correct posture during use of exercise equipment.
3. Work to fulfill individual goals determined in pre-semester assessment.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Students meet one on one with the instructor frequently throughout the semester, providing multiple opportunities to offer course related feedback.

Grading: Two points are earned each day for positive participation. Positive participation is working at full capacity with consideration of personal disabilities. Seven points each are given when the student completes a mandatory pre and post assessment. There is a total of 70 possible points. Daily points = 56 points A = 63 points and above (90-100%) Pre/post assessment = 14 points B = 56-62 points (80-90%) Total points = 70 points C = 49-55 points (70-79%) D = 42-48 points (60-69%) F = 41 points and below.

CR/NR If you prefer to take a credit/no credit, you will need to make arrangements with the admissions office early in the semester. This is your obligation. P.E. 98 is automatically credit/no credit. Receiving credit is equal to a C or above.

Letter Grades: The grade you receive will be based on the following criteria; Positive participation, assessments, and goal progression.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

During COVID19—DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
