measure, ear plugs, leather shoes, fire resistant clothing. A handout is available with options on how and where to acquire PPE.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

[Should include info such as final grade calculations, rubrics, late assignment policy, and other grading practices]

There will be 400 points possible. Final grades will be based on these point totals

A	90-100%	400 - 360 points
B	80-89%	356 - 320 points
C	79-70%	316 – 280 points
D	69 -60%	276 – 240 points
F	59 – less	179 or less

- Anyone may earn up to 400 points through the weekly assignments • 25 points per week

I will keep a daily grade sheet for students in this class. Students will be graded based on participation in the class. Participation will be assessed based on punctuality, safety practices, roll out and clean up, professionalism and engagement of the days activities. 25 points can be earned per week, and the rubric is as follows:

PUNCTUALITY	5 points for being punctual	0 points for not being punctual
SAFETY	5 points for working safely	0 points for not working safely
ROLLOUT/ CLEANUP	5 points for rollout/cleanup of tools and materials	0 points for not engaging in rollout/cleanup
ENGAGEMENT	5 points for being engaged in the activities	0 points for not being engaged in activities
PROFESSIONALISM	5 points for being professional	0 points for not being professional

General Safety Guidelines:

- You must follow all class rules regarding wearing appropriate safety gear (safety glasses, hearing protection, appropriate footwear and attire, etc.).
- You must follow all class rules regarding the safe and appropriate use of tools and equipment.
- You must follow all instructor directives relative to safety.

Safety Guidelines Relative to Drug/Alcohol Use:

- Being under the influence of drugs or alcohol during class/lab is STRICTLY PROHIBITED and is a clear violation of the student code of conduct. Any student suspected of being under the influence of drugs or alcohol OR who is displaying behaviors that I deem to be unsafe will be immediately removed from class, and I will report your removal (and the reasons behind it) to the Division Dean for further action. Additional action may include referral to the Vice President/Chief Student Services Officer.
- Please be aware that even though marijuana has been legalized in California for recreational use, it is still strictly forbidden on campus (in any form) and you are still prohibited from being under the influence while on campus.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
